

Falling Walls Lab, an international pitch competition, is coming to Thailand. Applications are possible until 31st May 2022. May we ask you to help us spread the word to potential applicants at your institution?

WHAT IS FALLING WALLS LAB THAIAND ABOUT?

Presenting a fascinating idea, a ground-breaking research project, or a sophisticated business model in three minutes: This is the Falling Walls Lab Thailand. At Falling Walls Lab Thailand, students and early-career professionals of all disciplines pitch their ideas in English in front of an expert-jury and the interested public – in just three minutes.

WHEN AND WHERE WILL FALLING WALLS LAB THAILAND TAKE PLACE?

Falling Walls Lab Thailand will be held on 26 June 2022 in Chamchuri 10, Bangkok. The day before Falling Walls Lab Thailand, KMITL KRIS will provide a training to all successful applicants on how to deliver an effective pitch.

WHO CAN APLY?

Falling Walls Lab welcomes ideas from any discipline that can have a positive impact on society and/or science.

Applicants must be 18 years or older when submitting their application. They must fulfil at least ONE of the following requirements:

- Currently enrolled in university / currently a postdoc
- Awarded a Bachelor's degree no more than 10 years ago
- Awarded a Master's degree no more than 7 years ago
- Awarded a PhD no more than 5 years ago

Applications can be submitted until 31 May 2022 via the Falling Walls Lab website: <https://falling-walls.com/lab/apply/thailand-2/>

THE PRIZE

The winner of Falling Walls Lab Thailand will travel to Berlin to attend the prestigious Falling Walls Science Summit and present his/her idea on the big stage of the global Falling Walls Lab Finale on 7 November 2022 – all travel/accommodation expenses covered. Additionally, the winner of Falling Walls Lab Thailand will be awarded the EURAXESS ASEAN prize, which supports the visit of a research institute of the winner's choice in Europe when participating in the finale in Berlin! Entrepreneurial-minded scientists can also qualify for the Innovation Week, a one-week training event for international start-up founders.
